

Original Zingy Bingy Concept Art From Python Anghelo Estate/Private Collection

Information from James Loflin, authorized seller of items from the Estate:

This is the original concept and artwork which Python Anghelo created in 1985 and would become the famous Capcom Zingy Bingy pinball machine. Python came up with the concept in 1985 while working for Williams. Williams wouldn't have had anything to do with it. Over 10 years later Python finds himself at Capcom Pinball where he brought this concept to life...sort of.

This is absolutely NOT a print or reproduction!
